Special Attributes

Special attributes such as environmental attributes (e.g., recycled content, energy efficiency, and/or reduced pollutants): West meets all the environmental regulations required for its services. West is committed to recycling and source reduction whenever possible. All documentation and software packaging that West supplies in conjunction with its computer-assisted legal research services are made from recycled material and are recyclable. In addition, West has an extensive recycling program in place for a variety of materials including: office paper, manufacturing paper, cardboard, plastic, computers/electronic equipment, and toner. West has also frequently been recognized with awards for its environmental practices.

Section 508 compliance - Electronic and Information Technology (EIT) supplies and services

As the foremost provider of integrated information products and services to the U.S. legal market, West recognizes the need to develop electronic and information technology (EIT) products and services that are accessible and usable by all people, including those with disabilities and special needs. West is committed to making its products and services compliant with the accessibility standards of Section 508 to the maximum extent practicable, or to provide equivalent facilitation (as provided by § 1194.5 and § 1194.31). West's efforts to accommodate the needs of our customers with disabilities and to promote the accessibility of our products and services are described in full at <http://store.westlaw.com/about/accessibility>.

West routinely works with government agencies, procurement officers, contracting officers, and other personnel to provide information about the accessibility of West products and services. If you have questions about the procurement of accessible West products and services, please contact: WestAccessibility@thomsonreuters.com. Voluntary Product Accessibility Templates (VPATs) for our products are available upon request. The EIT standards can be found at www.Section508.gov.
