Introducing WestlawNext Matter Benchmark Reports

WestlawNext Matter Benchmark Reports is a dynamic analytics engine that provides actionable information to help firms run efficiently. It uses actual law firm timekeeper billing invoices for analysis and trending – fueled by data from Serengeti® Law, the developer of the No. 1-rated e-billing and matter management system and the largest connected network of firms and clients.

Sample Matter Benchmark Report only available on WestlawNext

With WestlawNext Matter Benchmark Reports law firms can make data-driven decisions and achieve stronger outcomes.

- Benchmark rates by comparing firms of all sizes, whether down the street or across the country in order to compete effectively
- Perform rate trending analysis to determine where there are opportunities to capture more value from clients
- Identify geographic and legal subject-matter practice areas best suited for expansion and growth

You can learn more about this exciting new WestlawNext resource at one of the upcoming Librarian in the Know sessions scheduled for October 19, 2011, at 12:00 pm \(Central\) and again at 3:00 pm \(Central\). To register for either session, please click on the time above that you would like to attend.

WestlawNext iPad® app version 2.2.0 now Available

The eagerly awaited WestlawNext iPad App 2.2.0 is now available through the iTunes® store. That means you can add highlighting or notes to documents you are viewing, whether you are online or offline. Simply select the text you want to annotate and a pop-up display of options (Copy, Copy with Reference, Highlight and Add Note) appears. It also means those annotations will stay where you put them (until you change them yourself) and it automatically syncs with the WestlawNext website and WestlawNext Mobile, so research begun in one place can easily be accessed and continued anywhere.
