

Everything important to your case, all in one place.

Now all your essential case information can be organized in a centralized electronic database, and accessed in a single click. So you and your team can enter and share key facts, discovery documents, main characters, evidence, pleadings, legal research and more. During your depositions, connect to the court reporter's laptop and receive a realtime feed of the transcript in your West Case Notebook™ software. You can search across all of this case information and find what you need instantly, including that hot document that may have taken you hours to locate before. All of which means you can be confident you've missed nothing.

Use West Case Notebook to:

- Enter, annotate, search and share all case-related documents – briefs, pleadings, filings, hot documents and more – in a click
- View a realtime feed of deposition testimony in Case Notebook
- Export Westlaw® research directly into your Case Notebook file
- Take your Case Notebook on the road and access files anywhere

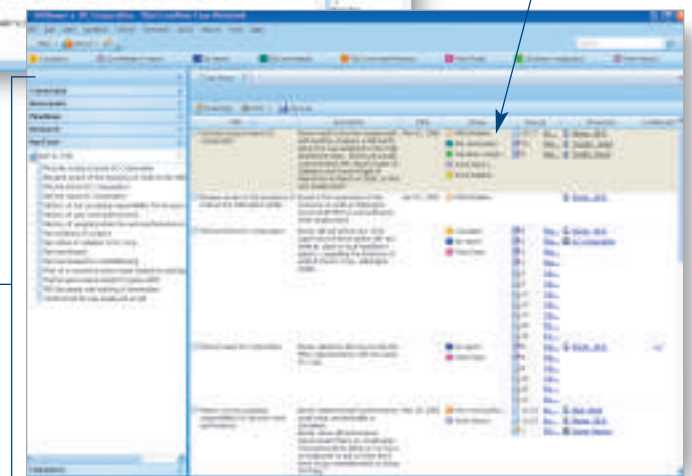

Annotate important excerpts in relevant documents.

Search across the text of all case materials, including imaged documents.

Track key facts and related sources and characters.

Organize all essential case information in one place.

West Case Notebook with LiveNote technology continued

Use West Case Notebook to keep all of your critical case information in one place and overcome daily case management and analysis challenges.

Instantly access and find all essential case documents

Challenges:

- Locating a specific document or file
- Having all of the necessary documents/files when working out of the office
- Organizing and accessing completed legal research
- Waiting for expedited deposition transcripts
- Recalling and locating specific factual sources or legal authorities within your case file

West Case Notebook benefit:

- Central electronic repository organizes case documents, legal research and work product
- At home and on the road, attorney's can access the central repository of all case information stored on the firms services
- Export Westlaw research with comments and live links directly into the case file
- Receive a realtime feed at your depositions and leave with a usable electronic transcript
- Track important facts and events in your case and import them into West Case Notebook to display them in a graphical format

Keep your analysis sharp at every stage of trial preparation

Challenges:

- Tracking complex fact patterns
- Maintaining consistent information for all people connected to the case
- Documenting/tracking thought process and context during research

West Case Notebook benefit:

- Track, analyze and make connections among key facts, documents, transcripts, people and legal research
- Capture and access information about individuals or groups connected to the case in the character file
- Add comments and issue tags immediately as you export research from Westlaw into the Case Notebook file

Keep your office running efficiently

Challenges:

- Transitioning new team members
- Preparing to begin the appellate process
- Reducing the time spent to locate and organize information and key facts

West Case Notebook benefit:

- Central electronic database becomes master case file, accessible to all team members
- Locate documents and information quickly with targeted search queries and summary reports
- Maintain a centralized database of key facts connected to related documents and characters

Visit west.thomson.com/casenotebook

To order or for more information, contact your West Representative at 1-800-762-5272.

WEST®